Opportunity for an Orthopedic Surgeon - Torrance Hand Surgeon

Posted: 12/2023

Our office is need of an orthopedic surgeon, subspecializing in hand surgery who desires to practice in the South Bay as an independent contractor. Orthopaedic Surgical Specialists (ossmd.com) is a private practice located in Torrance, California. This position is part-time and ideal for a hand specialist with an interest in acute and chronic conditions of the elbow, forearm, wrist and hand which could require the spectrum of treatment from fracture treatment, local injections, reconstruction and arthroplasty. This private practice allows for a combination of independence and collegiality. Office call is light and ER panel call is optional. The office patient population and referral base would easily support half to a full day each week in the office and OR. The new orthopedic specialist will keep the majority of their fees, depending on their monthly collections.
